The Concept

Our intention is to welcome wellness practitioners and conscious nomads looking for a safe and serene space to disconnect from the urban world to reconnect with themselves and nature without compromising their comfort.

Our concept is born from the need to live in a more sustainable world where humans understand how to make better use of natural resources without compromising them

Wellness Focus

Daily yoga, meditation and alternative healing classes and workshops form a core part of the El Refugio de Sayulita community.

As a resident you will have access to all amenities, discounted classes and special deals on our healthy cafe menu.

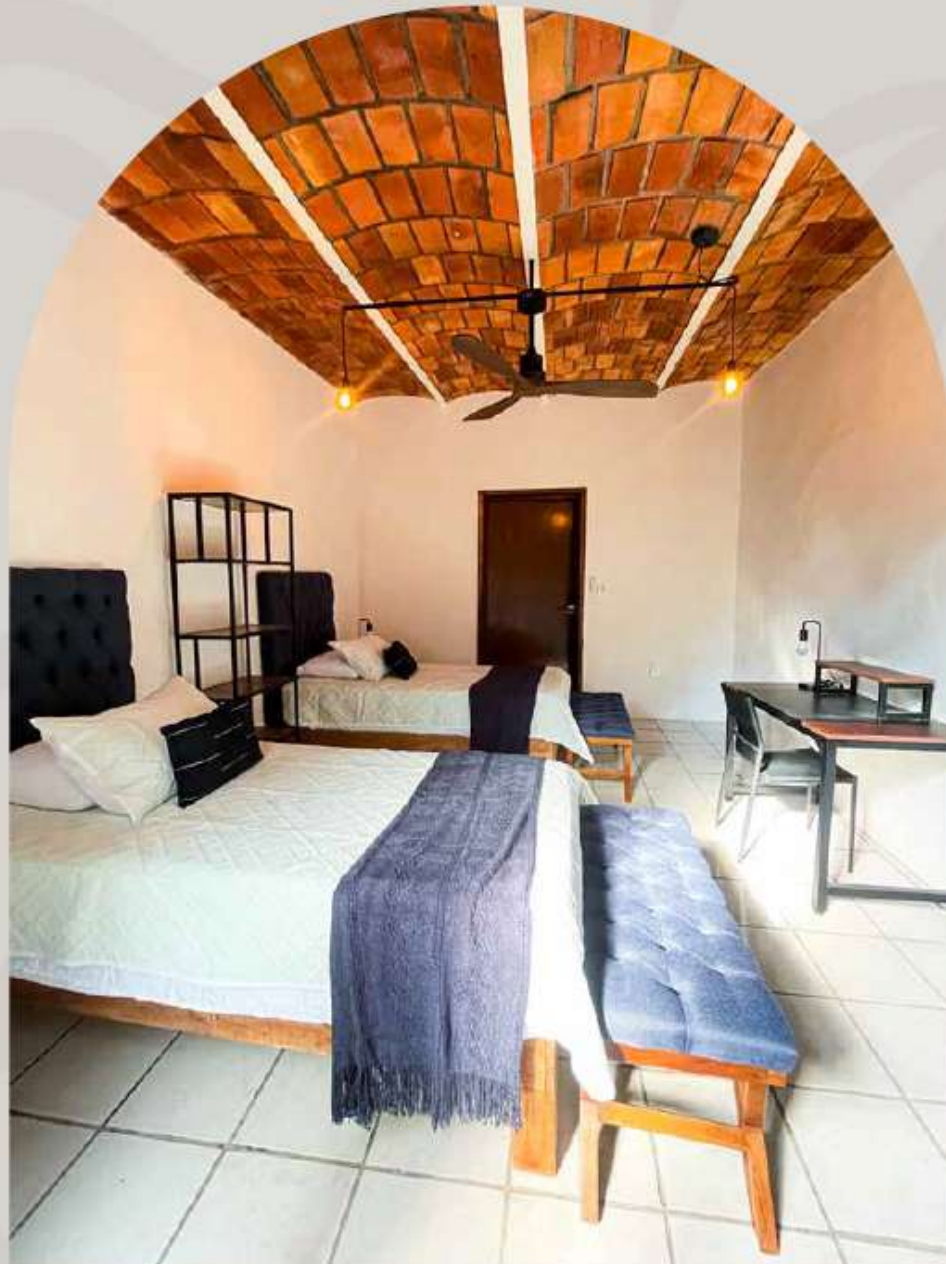

Co-working areas are free to use and we offer preferred rental rates to invite and work with your clients in our massage room, personal training equipment, yoga shala, etc...
